

from the bench...perhaps better, but I'm not the world's best shot, as my shooting buddies will readily attest.

Para's Gun Rights PXT P14•45 comes with a pair of 14-round stainless steel magazines and nice array of extras, including a bushing wrench, extra red and green fiber optic pipes, hex wrenches for the rear sight and grip screws, and the obligatory cable lock. You also get a coupon that entitles you to a $10 discount on your NRA membership. MSRP for this pistol is $1125, but the folks at Para informed me that most dealers will be selling the Gun Rights pistols at considerably below recommended retail.

The same day that I received the Gun Rights PXT P14•45 for review, I got some very sad news. Ted Szabo, president of Para and gifted technical innovator, passed away suddenly at the age of 60. Ted's accomplishments included Para's high-capacity frame and magazine, Para's exclusive LDA trigger system and the Power Extractor. Other innovative designs are still under development. But above all, Ted was a passionate defender of gun rights. Having fled Hungary with his family after the Soviet tanks rolled into Budapest, Ted knew from bitter experience that an unarmed populace was an invitation to tyranny. Realizing the challenges that face our gun rights as we approach 2008, Ted devised the concept of the Gun Rights pistols, offering both a significant value and a means of making a needed contribution to NRA-ILA.

As a gun owner, you know the importance of our Second Amendment rights. And today, those rights are under vicious attack as never before. Our enemies in Washington have the votes to do terrible damage to our First Freedom, and we cannot sit back and let them have their way. Both the single-stack and the high-capacity Para Gun

“Ted was a passionate defender of gun rights. Having fled Hungary with his family after the Soviet tanks rolled into Budapest, Ted knew from bitter experience that an unarmed populace was an invitation to tyranny.”

Rights pistols are one means to defend our rights. We have to let our elected representatives – who often forget that they are our tax-supported servants – understand in no uncertain terms that we legally armed Americans will not accept any abridgement of the God-given rights that our Founding Fathers fought so hard to secure. B

SALUTE
PRODUCTS INCORPORATED

AR500 STEEL TARGETS THAT AUTOMATICALLY RESET!

www.saluteproducts.com
To see complete catalog 503-617-7595

Custom Target shapes available Email: sales@saluteproducts.com

The advertisement features a central image of a large AR500 steel target on a stand. Surrounding this central image are numerous smaller icons representing different target shapes, including human figures in various poses, animals like a turkey, pig, and sheep, and other objects like a car and a house. The Salute logo is prominently displayed at the top center.

This is an advertisement for Salute Products. Please contact them directly to purchase their targets.